CIRCULAR

Regarding Saturdays Working on 05 Sep 2026

This is for the information of all concerned that Saturday, 05 September 2026 shall be observed as a full working day for all staff members in view of the Teachers' Day celebrations, Examination and the Blood Donation Programme being organized by the University.

Both programmes are important and noble initiatives of the University and require the presence and active participation of all concerned teams for their smooth and successful conduct. Accordingly, all staff members are required to attend the University on the said Saturday and extend their full cooperation and support to ensure effective coordination and seamless execution of the programmes.

All concerned are requested to make the necessary arrangements accordingly.

Published with the approval of the Competent Authority.
